Dear Dr Luis Carlos Tenorio Herrera,

Re: the title 'Honorary Professor of the Academic Union Oxford'

I'm glad to address you as the high-profile representative of the regional business elite on behalf of the Academic Union, Oxford Academic Council. We ask for your agreement to nominate you as one of the key figure in the development of the regional economy for the prestigious title 'Honorary Professor of the Academic Union Oxford'.

Awarding of this title is a symbol of credit and expression of thanks to people who promote social and intellectual progress of modern society, and development of integration in the fields of science, culture, and education in all spheres of human activity.

The title is given for special services in the aforementioned fields, and implementation of high technologies in the field of business processes, this helping to promote revival of the national economy. It recognises those people whose activity helps promote goodwill and development of the Academic Union.

The laureates receive the right to use the Honorary Professor title in official and private correspondence, business cards etc., as well as use the Academic lounge in Oxford. The Honorary Professor receives the attributes including mantle, diploma and chain as well as the personal certificate.

We are sure that in current situation for the laureates it is very important to emphasize reputation and achievements, promote their companies and attract new customers and clients. We offer you the distant participation package.

You will receive all benefits and promotional services and will safely stay at home.

This package includes award courier delivery to your office, extended range of services and online presentation/interview during online Achievements Forum-2021 October, 5. Due to world pandemic the event will be held online.

The event and ceremony will be streamed online on the official Facebook page and YouTube channel of Europe Business Assembly (EBA, Oxford, UK).

Kindly contact me before September, 10 in case you are interested in distant participation. I will be glad to assist with the nomination and requirements. We are looking forward to hearing your response.

Sincerely,

Julia Chambers
