Dear Dr Luis Carlos Tenorio Herrera,

Re: the title 'The Name in Science, the Academic Union Oxford'

On behalf of the Academic Union Oxford – the prestigious multicultural academic community of professionals, researchers, practitioners, inventors, let me express my appreciation to you personally and your successful dynamically developing company.

The Academic Union is an international academic association of over 200 University Chancellors, Scientists and Researchers. The committees and the Union as a whole pursue the ideals of Academic Excellence, Innovation and Accessibility and are committed to disseminating these core values through its worldwide community. The primary aim of the Union is to consolidate the efforts of scientists, educators, industrialists, and manufacturers on science, education and business integration.

The Academic Union Oxford Council supported by EBA has nominated you to receive the title 'The Name in Science' and the personal medal 'For Contribution to World Science'. The award brand is protected by the English law and is registered by the British Intellectual Property Bureau (Registration #2563774). This award is given to the most respected personalities in the fields of science, technology and innovations.

Awarding of this title is a symbol of credit and expression of thanks to people who develop intellectual progress of modern society, assist to integration between science and other activity fields, including business and politics. The title outlines personal contribution to scientific research, personal achievements in the development of national science, as well as contribution to solving regional and global social, political and economic problems.

We offer you the distant participation package.

You will receive all benefits and promotional services and will safely stay at home.

This package includes award courier delivery to your office, extended range of services and online presentation/interview during online Achievements Forum-2021 March 19th. Due to world pandemic the event will be held online.

I will be glad to provide more complete information about the online event and the unique privileges of the Name in Science title should you require.

Kindly contact me before February, 19 in case you are interested in distant participation.

Sincerely,

Julia Chambers
